The 17th edition of the Osarus La Teste Yearling sale will take place on Monday and Tuesday, September 9-10, and the catalogue has been published online.

The sale will begin at 1pm (12pm BST) on Monday (lots 1 to 93) and 12 noon (11am) on Tuesday (lots 94 to 176).

Once again, the 2023 La Teste yearling sale produced the winner of the first race for two-year-olds in Europe when Cylenechope won the Prix du Premier Pas at Lyon on March 17.

The sale also provided Van Beethoven and Hey Gaman with their first winners in March, with Sweet Chop winning at La Teste and Eagle Gate winning at Marseille.

Previous graduates of the sale continue to make headlines, with Chic Colombine, by Seahenge, winning the 2024 Listed Prix La Camargo, Trueshan (Planteur) winning the Listed Coral Marathon at Sandown at the beginning of the month and Sands Of Mali (Panis) making a great sire debut with his first Royal Ascot Listed winner, Ain't Nobody.

This year 72 sires will be represented in the sale, including Almanzor, Charm Spirit, Cloth Of Stars, Expert Eye, Flintshire, Galiway, Goken, Harry Angel, Iffraaj, Kendargent, Kodi Bear, Muhaarar, Sea The Moon, Seabhac, Seahenge, Tasleet, The Grey Gatsby, Toronado, Zelzal,

Among young stallions whose first crop are two or three-year-olds there are Circus Maximus, City Light, Crystal Ocean, Earnshaw, Earthlight, Elarqam, Golden Horde, Hey Gaman, Invincible Army, Romanised, Stunning Spirit, Threat, Van Beethoven, Wooded and Yafta, as well as the first crop of Armor, Motmarris, Sir Ron Priestley and Victor Ludorum.
